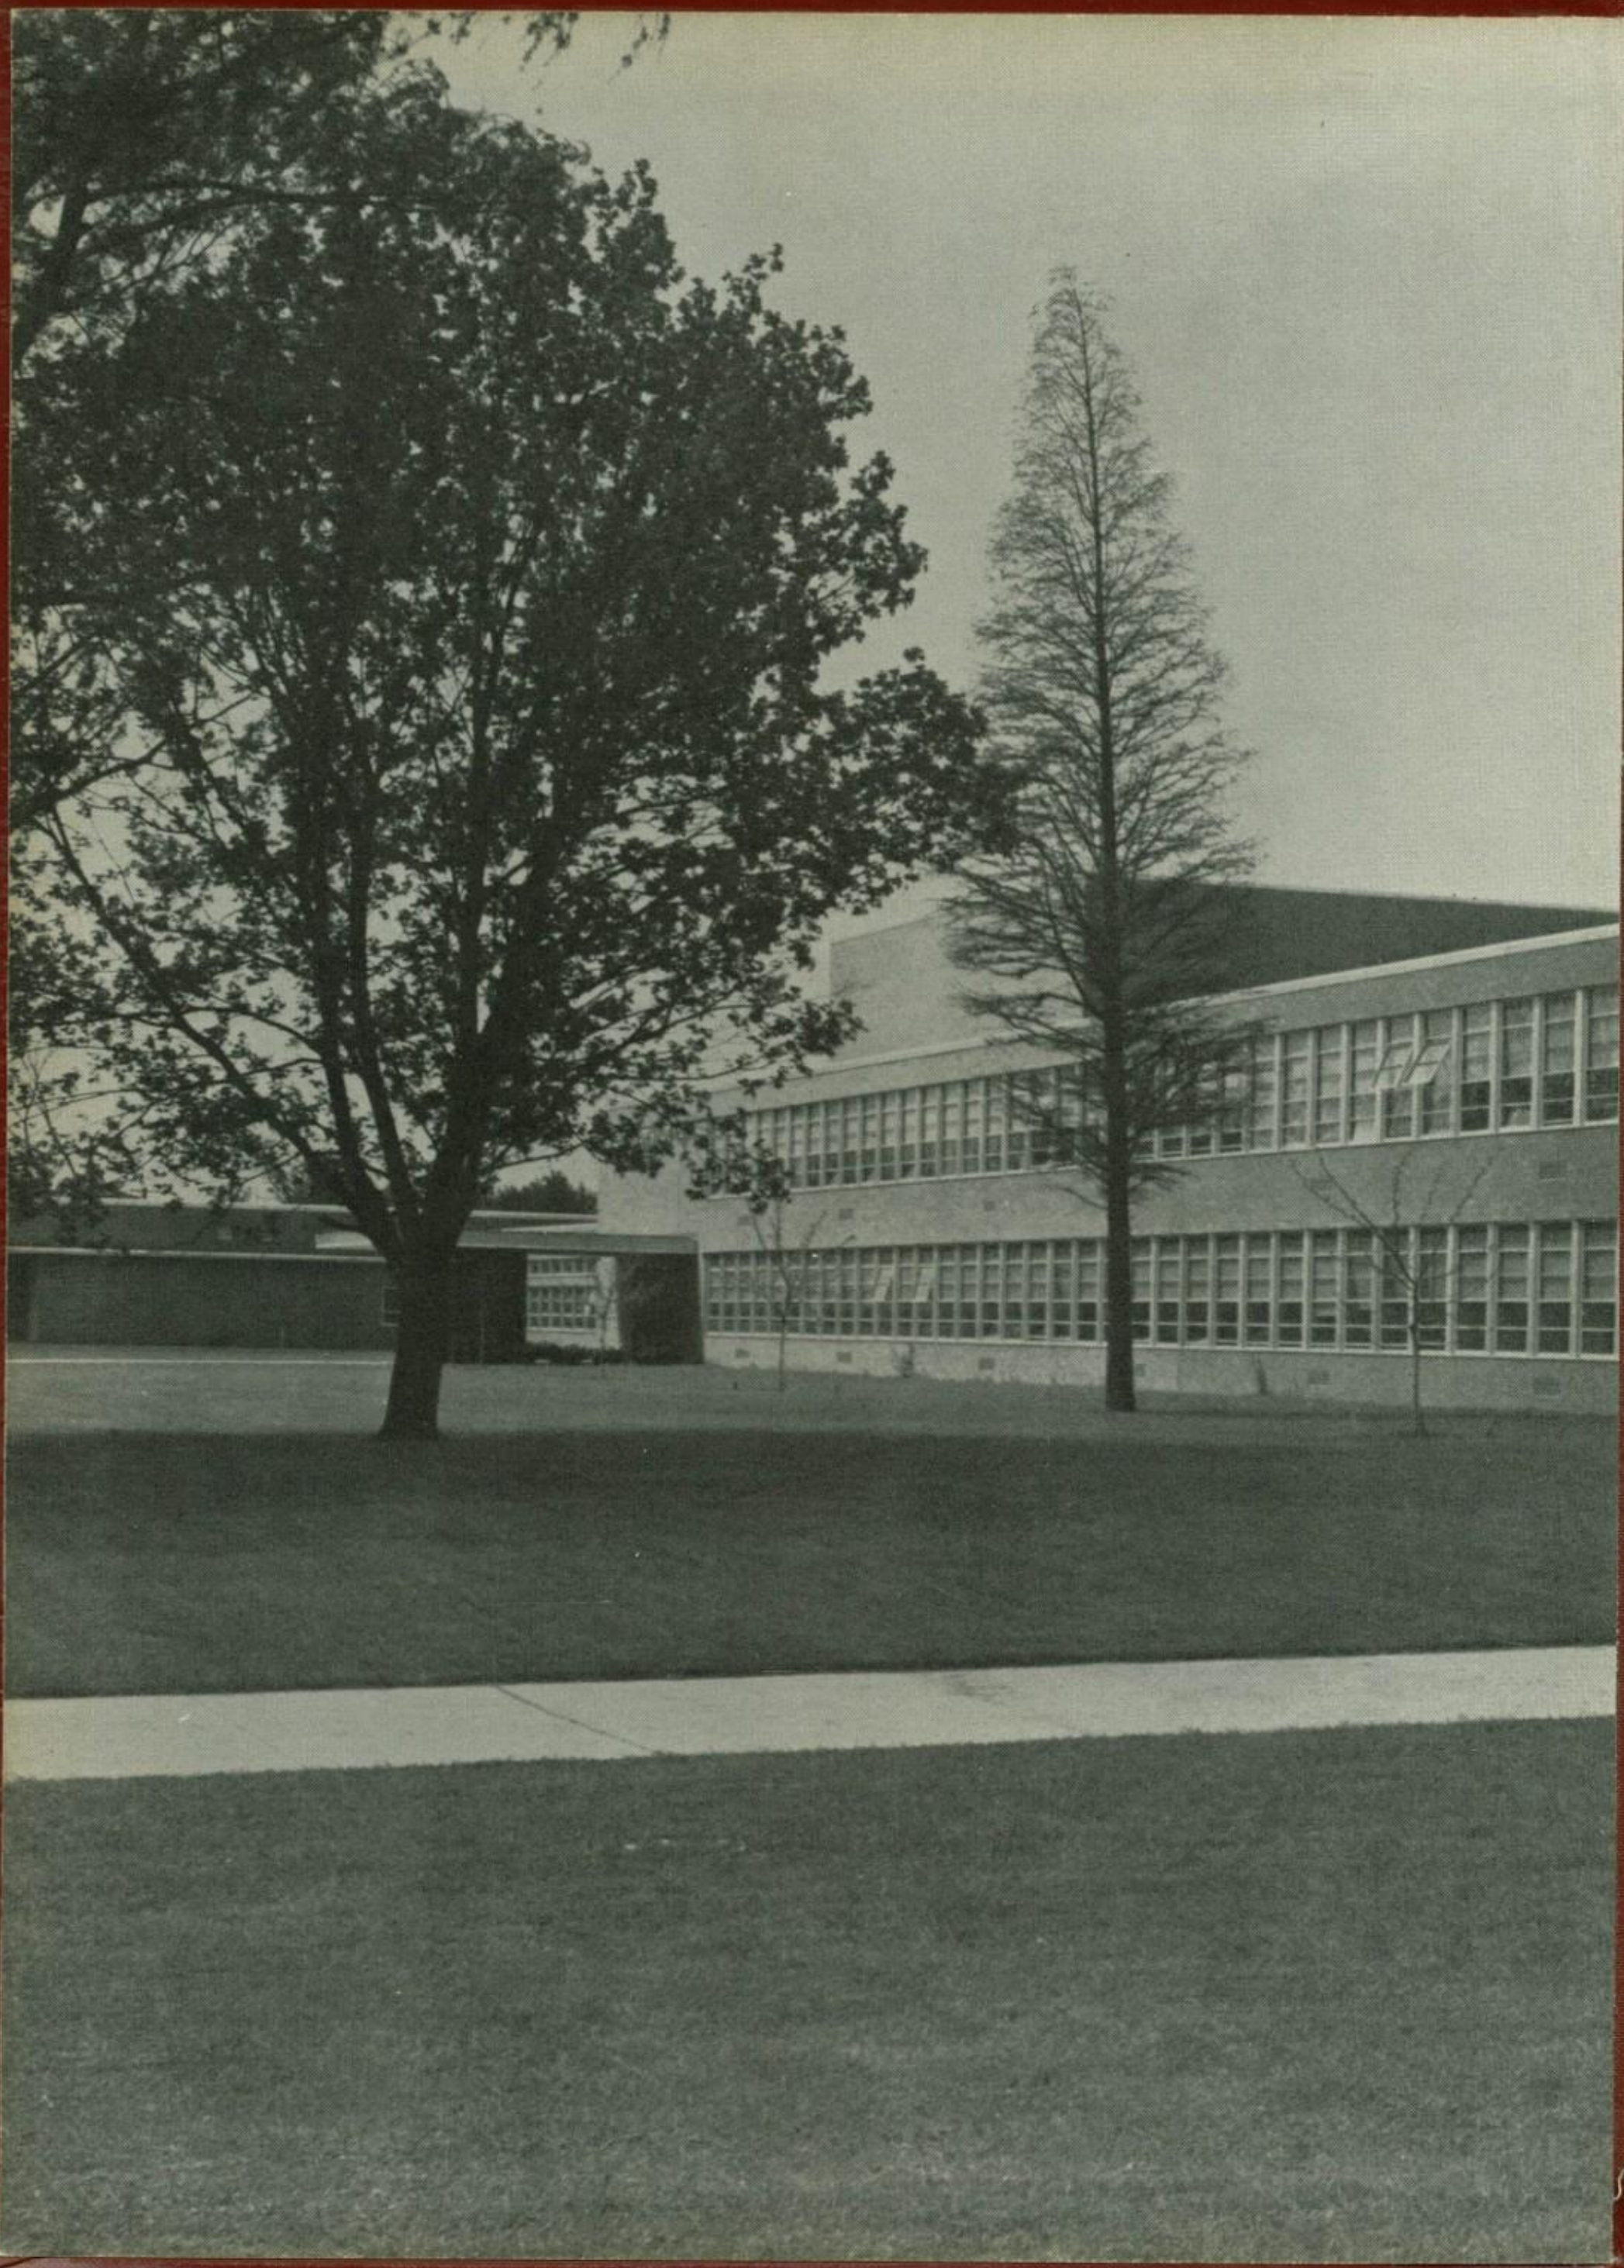
Shield



Dear,

You are really one of the sharpest guys I would ever want to know. Your personality really makes you tops in my opinion. May everything you do be successful and may all your dreams come true. Try and be good and don't ever, ever forget me cause I will never forget you no matter what you may think. We really have had a lot of fun together and I sure hope there will be loads more. I think you know how I feel so I won't bother to try and explain it even if words could explain it.

Good luck forever

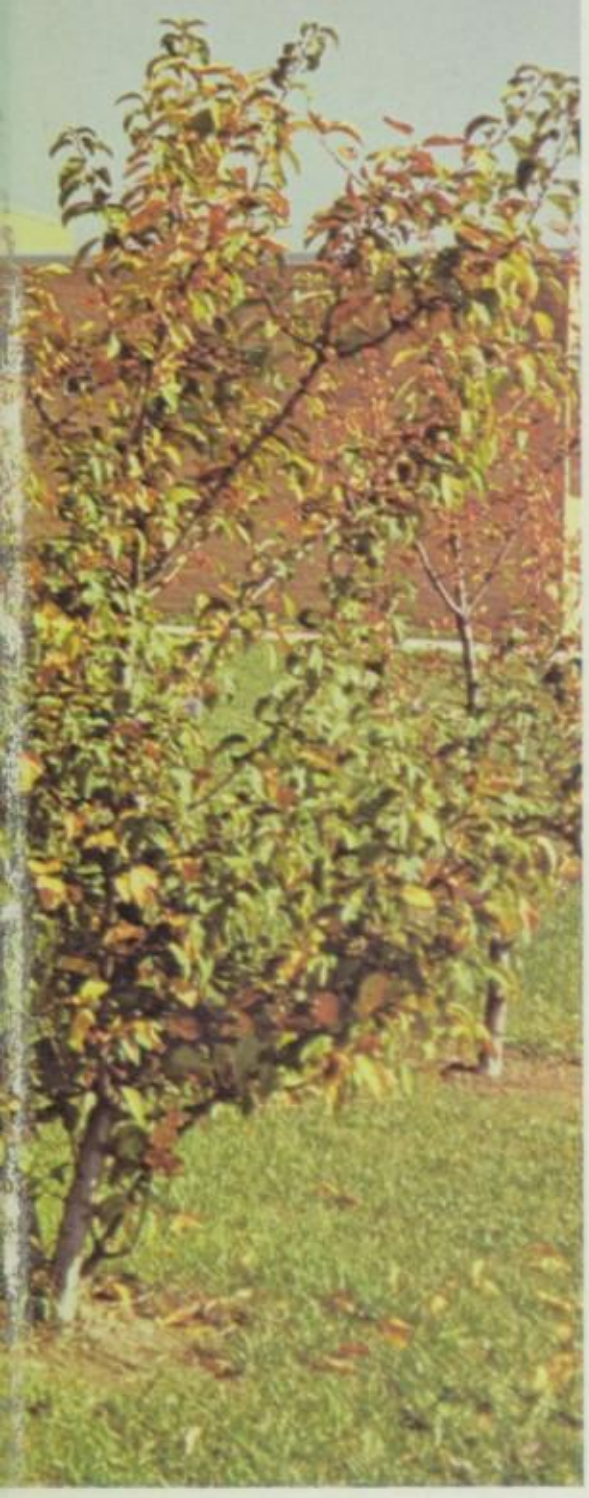
EASTMOOR HIGH SCHOOL: A NEW VIEW



PRAISE TO EASTMOOR

We sing our praise to Eastmoor,
Our guide to truth and light.
May we ever strive to serve thee
And to keep thy honor bright.

And when we leave thy side
May all we learned abide
To lead our steps along the path we choose.

May the honor we receive
And the zenith we achieve
Reflect their glory back to Eastmoor High.

Thou shalt tower a constant beacon
As we journey down life's ways.
We'll remember thee forever
And forever sing thy praise.

Members of the Columbus Board of Education include Mr. William R. Fornof, Mrs. Ralph H. Davidson, Mr. Edward N. Sloan, Mr. Daniel W. DeHayes (president), Mr. Frank S. Williams, Mr. Paul R. Langdon (vice-president), and Mr. Homer Trantham.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

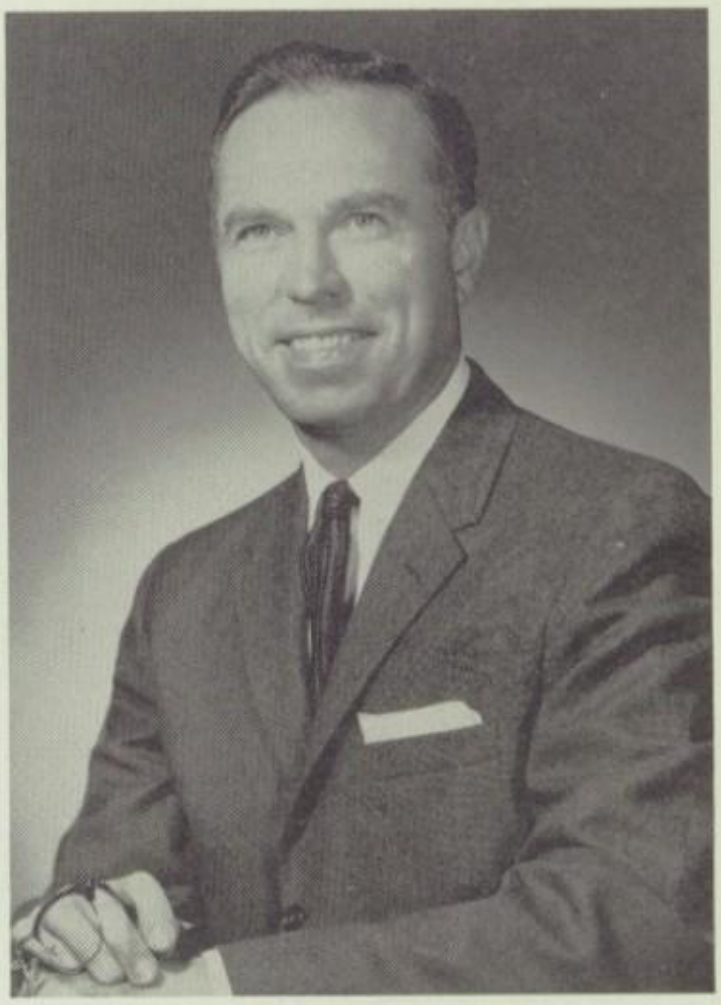
The seven members of the Board of Education are the hardest-working group in our school system. Their main jobs are planning the policy of the system and seeing how well their plans are carried out. They are elected to four-year terms, working without pay.

Since August 13, 1956, Dr. Harold Eibling has served as Superintendent of Columbus Schools. In that time twenty new schools have been built, and thirty-two more are scheduled to be operating by 1965. One of these is a new junior-senior high school in the Livingston Avenue and Black Walnut Creek Area which will open next fall.

NORVAL GOSS, our vice-principal



T. H. MAYER, our principal

OUR PRINCIPALS

Together Mr. Mayer and Mr. Goss are planning the schedule for next year's classes.

Mrs. Whitaker is in charge of the students' records and has been at Eastmoor for the past four years. All student registrations, withdrawals and monthly reports to the Board of Education are handled by Mrs. Lamp who has worked at our school for three years.

YOU MEET THESE IN THE OFFICE

Mr. Murphy holds a B.S. and M.A. in Education from Wilmington College and Ohio State University. He is a science instructor, Junior Science Club adviser, and attendance officer.

Miss Miller is a graduate of Ohio State University with a B.S. in Education. She teaches physical education and is adviser for the senior class, the Varsity and Reserve Cheerleaders and the GAA.

Mr. Howard, who received a B.S. in Education at Ohio State University, is a personal and vocational counselor. Supervising the audio-visual aids is another one of his responsibilities.

Miss Casey attended Ohio State University where she received a B.S. and M.A. in Education. She is a full-time counselor and the Senior Y-Teens adviser.

The most important part of Eastmoor's health program this year has been carrying out the provisions of the new law passed by the State Legislature. This law requires all students to be immunized against smallpox, diphtheria and tetanus, and to have at least three polio shots.

Miss Kies, who is in her third year as our school nurse, has eight girls helping her in her office. They help keep the files, and, as training for a possible career in nursing, they take care of emergencies. The girls are: Sandra Ball, Alena Davis, Judy Foley, Carol Heizer, Dixie Hopkins, Sandra Leonard, Marilyn Renick, Dolores Rice and Sandra Sparks.

GOOD HEALTH AT EASTMOOR

The clinic, a room familiar to all of us at one time or another.

The flag at half-mast indicates a moment of silence for Albert "Shorty" Buehler who passed away on January 13, 1960. Eastmoor students and faculty remember him for his four years of faithful service as custodian. He was usually seen caring for the lawn and working in the cafeteria. All are grateful for his years of service to Eastmoor.

Through the friendly and efficient efforts of these people we are brought to school, fed, and kept warm. We are grateful to our bus drivers, cafeteria workers, and custodians.

S

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The graduating class of 1960 has been a class of many firsts. In 1956, when we were freshmen, Eastmoor had its first football team and first homecoming celebration. That same year the first edition of the SHIELD was published. We helped to establish many traditions such as "Rainbow Day" which is held in early spring. King and Queen of Hearts were elected for the first time while we were juniors. In our senior year we received the new style in class rings, and we were the first class to be honored with "senior privileges." Another first was established in the fall of our senior year when our football team won the City League Championship just after our new stadium had been dedicated.

Our class of 238 members boasts many different origins. Students came to Eastmoor from places ranging all the way from Germany and Belgium to Japan and the Philippine Islands. Local junior highs such as Roosevelt, Franklin, and Crestview contributed their wealth to this class.

Individuals have brought honor both to our class and to our school. Eileen Collins and Sidney Townsend took advanced classes at OSU during the summer quarter. Eileen received the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award and Sidney has done outstanding work in music. John Ryder Poole and Jennifer Douthit brought scholastic recognition to Eastmoor by becoming finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Competition. Ry also placed with two other seniors, John Thomas and Eileen Collins in the top five per cent of the Ohio General Scholarship Test. Barbara Moltenberry and John Braulick represented Eastmoor at Buckeye Girls' and Boys' States. Margrit Bauer was chosen as Eastmoor's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Cynthia Husted was runner-up in the Citizen's Ford Motor Company Journalism Contest. Ray Bland, Richard Wilson, and Ronald Wollett made the All-City Football team. These are just a few of our contributions toward making Eastmoor an outstanding school.

The aspirations of the 1960 class members are high. Most of the graduates plan to enter college. Nursing and branches of the service are popular career choices. In our midst we have potential scientists, doctors, teachers, lawyers, engineers, entertainers, and business executives. The last four years have been memorable ones that we won't easily forget. We all hope that "the honor we receive and the zenith we achieve, reflect their glory back to Eastmoor High."

One of the finest "additions" to the staff was the journalism office. It is located in room 120. Working in it at the moment are Connie Brown, copy editor, and the Shield adviser, Mrs. Hicks.

Junior staff members typed and read proofs as training for other jobs in the future. They are Barbara Pursell, Barry Hilton, Lynn Balthasar, Bobbie Shaw, July Pilzer, Marilyn Renick, art editor; and Sue Douthit.

STAFF

yearbook deadlines are finally reached. Ad-sellers comb the town for business ads, and homerooms are bombarded with collectors for yearbook money.

All this and more goes toward bringing you the greatest SHIELD yet.

Sharon Jarvis, subscription manager; Cynthia Husted, business manager; and Peggy Colegrove, advertising manager are puzzling over how tight the budget is.

SHAPE

A typical day just before a deadline. Members of the staff are spending their semester vacation at school making out copy sheets.

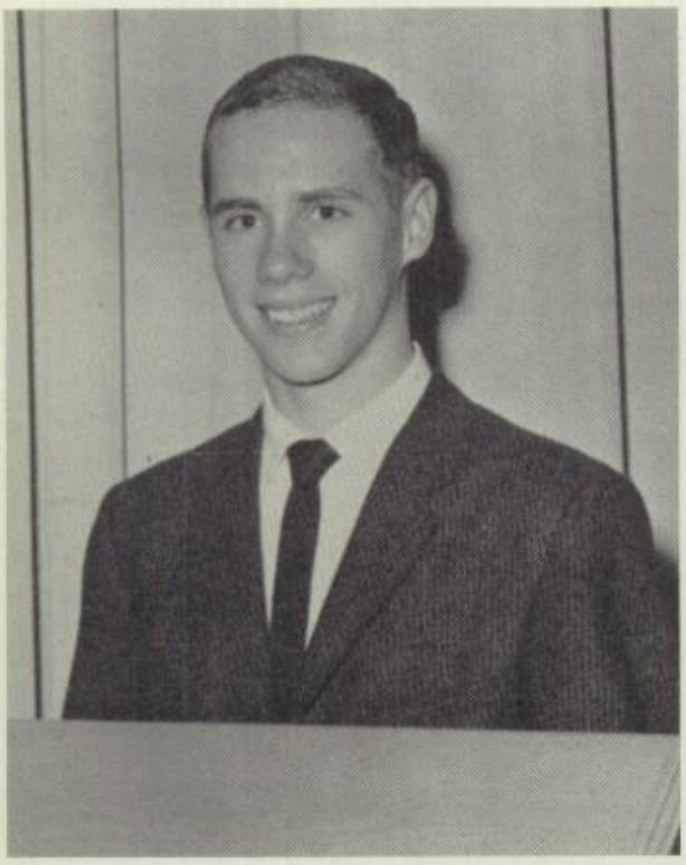
SHIELD . . .

Members for 1960 of QUILL AND SCROLL, the international honorary society for high school journalists, are Margrit Bauer, co-editor; Peggy Colgrove, advertising manager; Jennifer Douthit, co-editor; Barbara Moltenberry, music editor; and Nancy Welch, senior class and index editor. The criteria for membership are scholastic rank in the upper third of the senior class, superior achievement in journalism, and outstanding service to Eastmoor. Our chapter was founded in 1958.

PRESIDENT



Bill Gillam, our Student Council president, has done an excellent job in leading the student body this year.

STUDENT COURT

"How do you plead?" is the question often posed by Student Court whose primary function is to promote high standards of citizenship among the students at Eastmoor. The court consists of four senior and three junior judges, two clerks, and a bailiff. John Braulick served as chief justice this past year with the advice of Mr. Conover. Ron Boyers is the only member ever to be elected two years in succession.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of Bill Gillam and the guidance of Mr. Conover, the Eastmoor Student Council assists in the establishment and promotion of a loyal school spirit, strives to maintain high standards of good citizenship, and provides an opportunity for the discussion of vital questions of interest to the students and faculty. This year the council sponsored the Homecoming Dance, the Mistletoe Ball, and weekly sock hops. Gathering food and clothing during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons for needy families is an annual project. The council also established several special privileges for seniors.

MR. KAYE, director of instrumental music.

Eastmoor's Concert and Marching Bands grow bigger and better each year.

The much-acclaimed Marching Band added spirit to our championship football season. For the second time the Concert Band was privileged to give a concert with Rafael Mendez, world-famous trumpeter. Another big event was the annual District Band Contest. The band also gave a school concert, participated in the Spring P.T.A. Concert, and took part in the graduation ceremonies. Two other instrumental groups, the Dixieland Band and Woodwind Quintet, added to our music program.

Eastmoor is also very proud of its Brass Choir, which is the only such high school group in central Ohio.

SENIOR

MR. MORRIS, director of choral music.

This has probably been the busiest year for the Eastmoor Senior Choir since its formation three years ago. In addition to the annual Christmas Choral Festival at Central High School and our own Christmas assembly program, the choir was privileged to sing for the Downtown Kiwanis Club.

Other activities for the year included the Winter Choral Concert, the Variety Show, the District Choral Contest, the annual city-wide P.T.A. Music Festival at St. John's Arena, our own P.T.A. Spring Concert, and graduation activities.

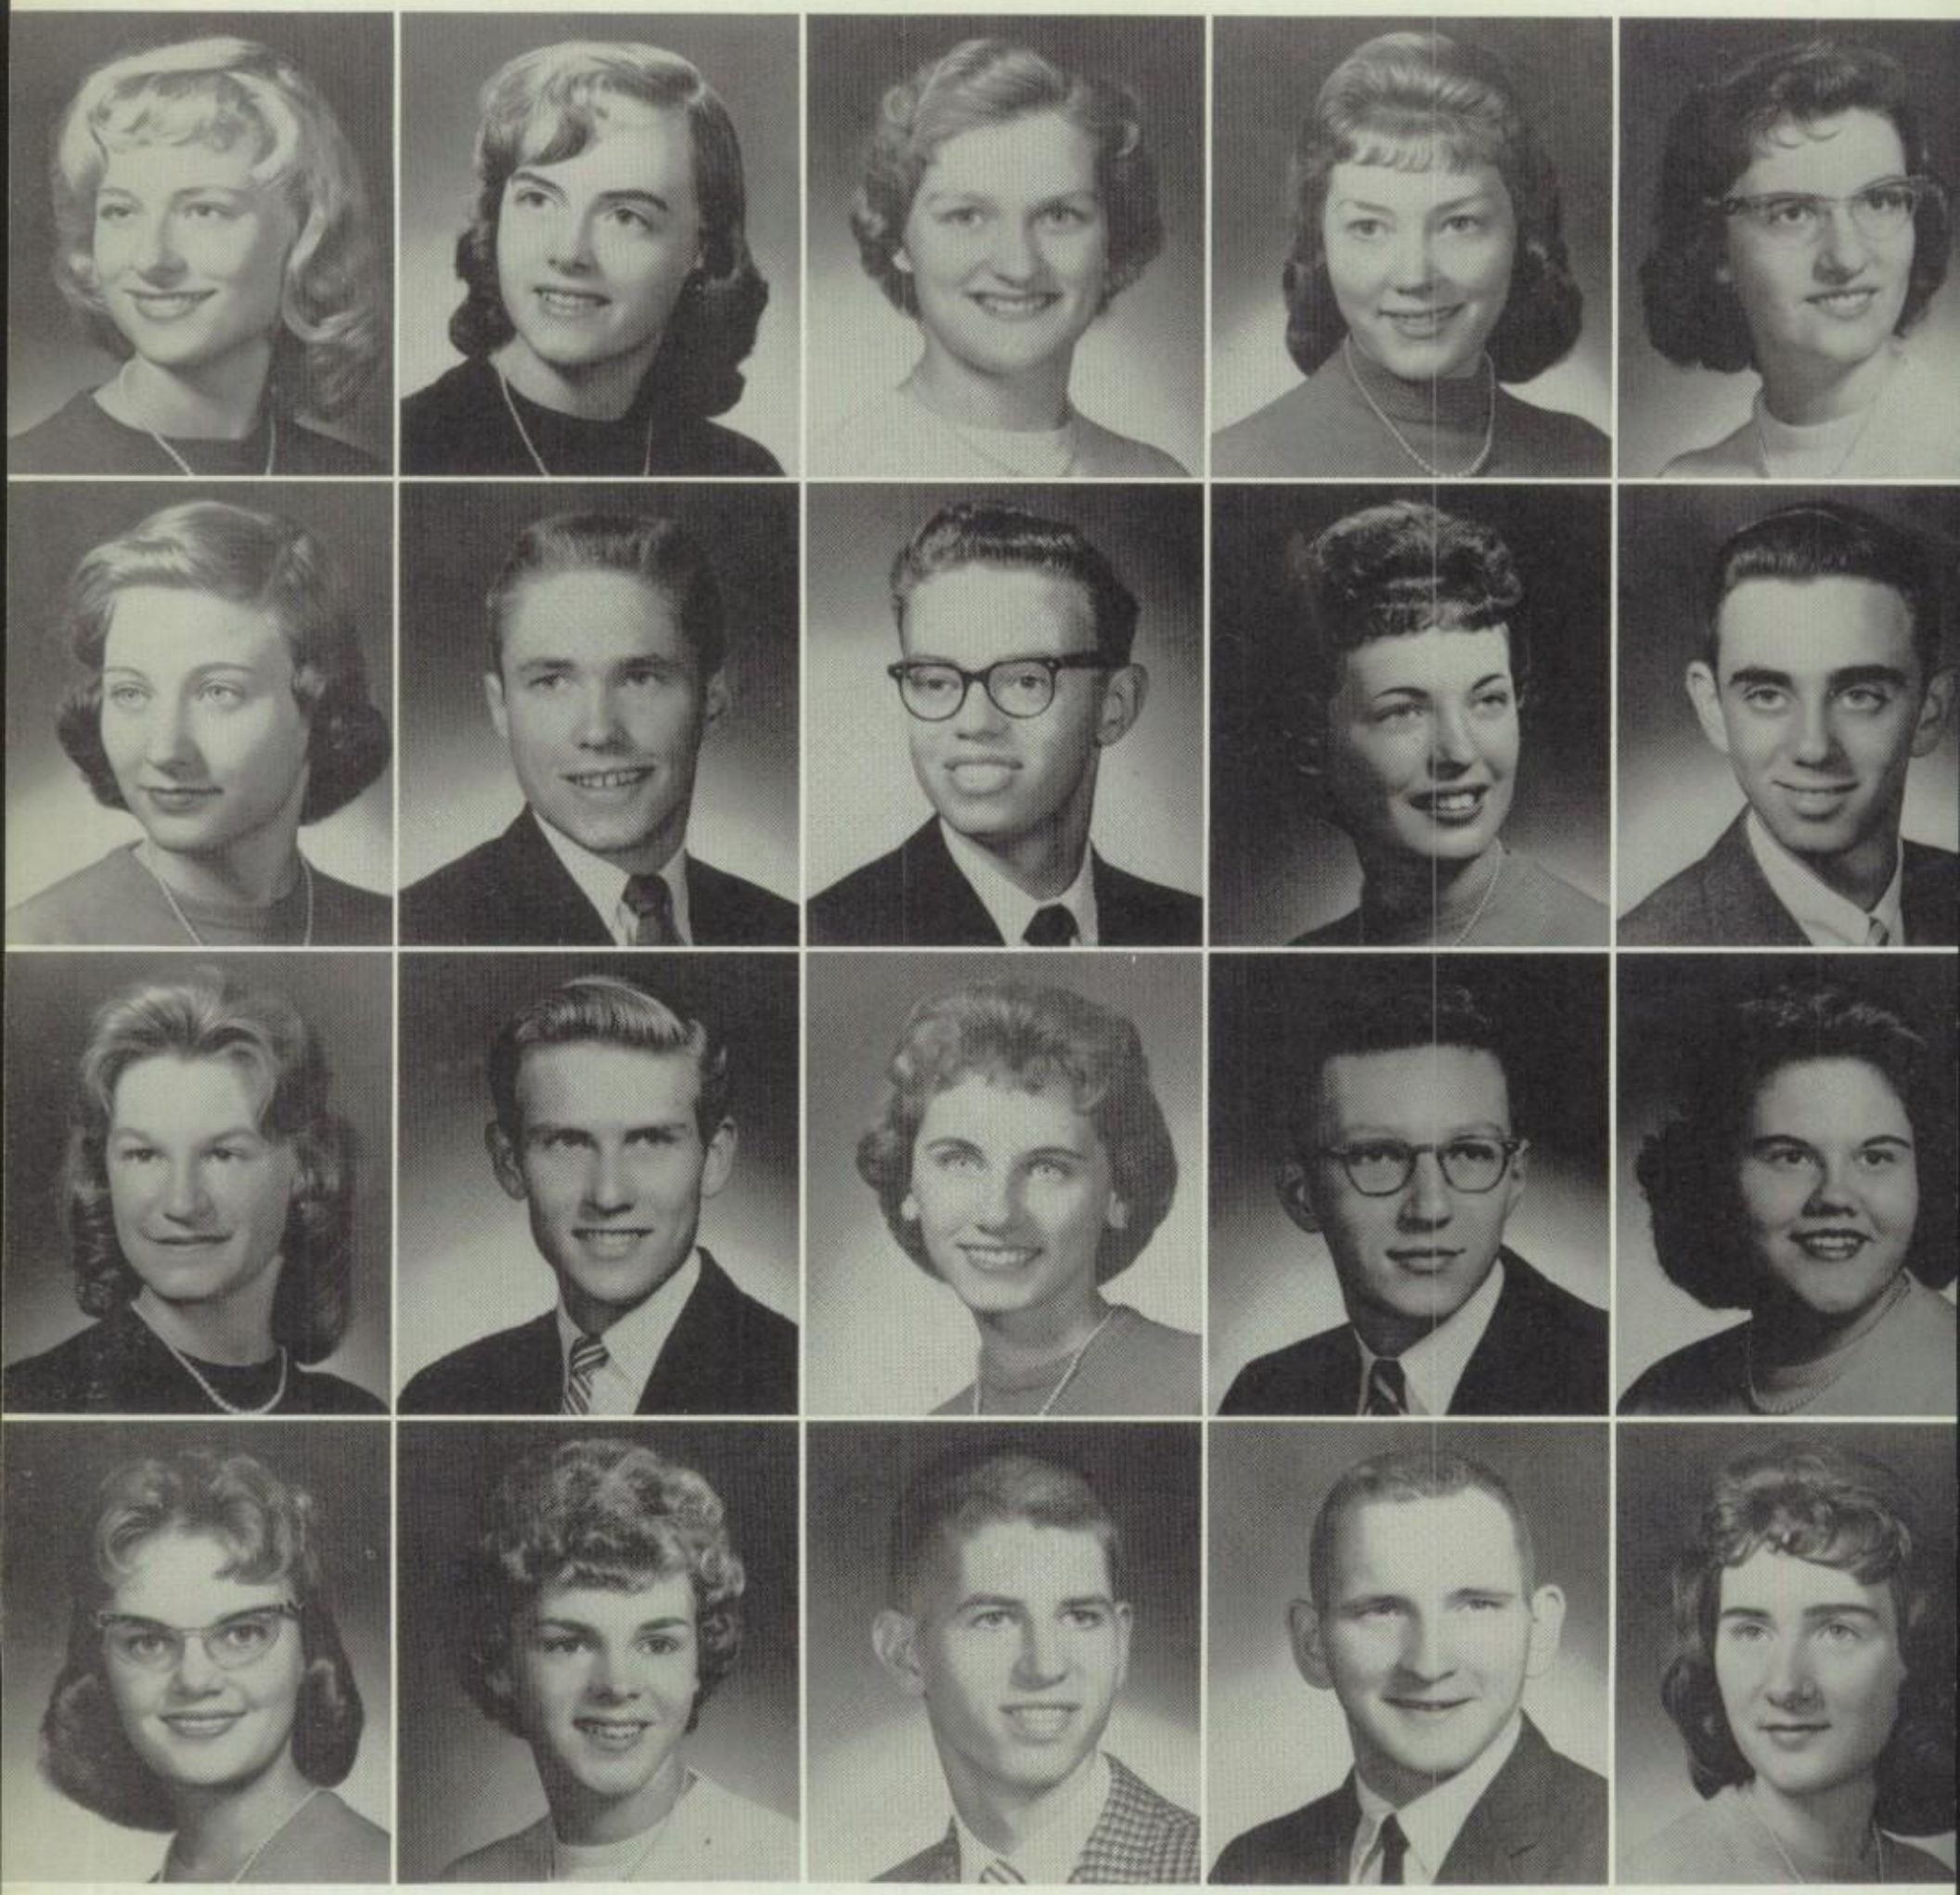
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY



Each Eastmoor senior who has a cumulative average of 3.2 is a candidate for membership in the National Honor Society. The 1960 members were tapped for membership at the Honor Assembly held on April 27. In addition to high scholarship, they qualified on the basis of worthy character, constructive leadership, and purposeful service to Eastmoor High School.

F.T.A.

The officers of the Senior F.T.A. are Judy Hillson, treasurer; Miss Glessner, adviser; Peggy Colegrove, vice-president; Gretchen Volz, president; and Marilyn Stevens, secretary.

These girls lead a club whose purpose it is to give experience and information on teaching as a career. Student teaching is their main source of experience, and student teachers from the universities are the main sources of information. The Future Teachers of America also gives parties for underprivileged children and a tea in the spring for the teachers.

WARRIORS

The Warriors Club is the largest organization at Eastmoor. The group is advised by Mr. Heintz and Mr. Fry. The purpose of the Warriors Club is to create more school spirit in sports. A committee from this club makes posters to promote attendance at games.

Advisers Mr. Heintz and Mr. Fry admire one of the Warriors Club posters. Members of the poster committee are Claudette Corbett, Becky Kelley, Debbie Dolezal, Mike Kohar, and (not pictured) Cynthia Husted.

Y-TEENS

Under the leadership of Miss Casey, the Y-Teens strive to develop high ideals in girls through fellowship, responsibility, and meaningful programs. In doing this, they are responsible for such things as the Thanksgiving assembly, decorations at Christmas time, service projects for the underprivileged, the annual Valentine dance, and the sale of mums at football games.

Officers of Senior Y-Teens are Rachel Egbert, treasurer; Jennifer Douthit, vice-president; Barbara Moltenberry, president; and Sandy Bland, secretary.

HI-Y

Boys in senior high become interested in Senior Hi-Y because of its varied participation in the different sports throughout the year. In addition to this, the members are also in charge of the Easter Assembly. By doing these things they try to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

Through a less extensive program the Junior Hi-Y prepares boys in the 8th and 9th grades for the activities of the Senior Hi-Y. Their program consists of basketball games and meetings at the YMCA.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association promotes an interest and appreciation for girls sports and recreational activities. This is accomplished by such activities as ice skating parties, square dances, and interscholastic sports. The program also includes a mother-daughter tea and an annual picnic.

Miss Mary Hull, guest speaker, talked to the G.A.A. as Miss Miller, adviser, and officers Arlene Masch, treasurer; Nancy Welch, vice-president; Judy Williams, secretary; and Karen Rea, president listen. The instructor at Ohio State University spoke on opportunities in the field of Physical Education.

DANCE CLUB

The members of the Dance Club learn dance routines and precision drills from Mrs. Glaser during their monthly meetings. The girls are later eligible to try out for Warriorettes.

Mrs. Glaser is teaching the members of the Dance Club a new step.

WARRIORETTES

As half-time entertainment at a basketball game the Warriorettes did a bop number to the record "Teen Beat."

Proud smiles appear on the faces of these Warriorettes after Eastmoor's triumph over Marion Franklin. The girls are Sharon Evans, Lynn Hanawalt, Diane Ortlepp, Karen Wilkins, Carol Johnston, Bev Reynolds, Sharon Reich, Parkie Schaefer, Rita Zweier, Judy Williams and Diane Friedman.

Leaders of the group are Peggy Colgrove, recording secretary; Diane Friedman, vice-president; Judy Williams, president; Karen Wilkins, corresponding secretary; and Ann Goldthwaite, treasurer.

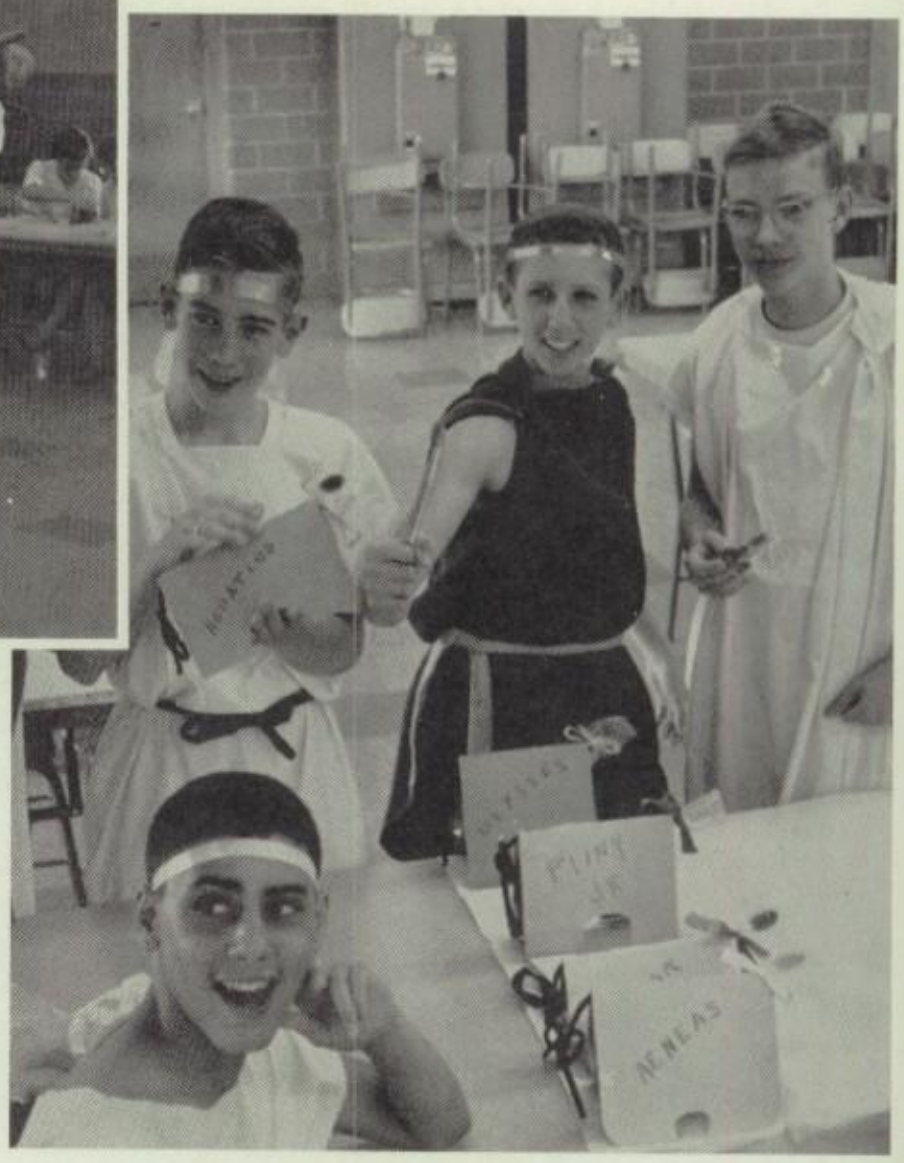
LATIN BANQUET



Ninth grade jockeys Allen Ross, Richard Knapp, and Mike Palestrant line up at the start of the horse race with their mounts. Lencar Biddle looks over the field before placing a bet.

John Engle who "rode" Pliny Jr. to victory in the race receives his trophy from Miss Lincoln. Spectators are Gini Marsh and Ted Guyton who also played in the Roman band.

Jon Ewing, complete with whip, auctions off ninth grade slaves to the highest bidder in the second year Latin class. Slaves served those popular Roman dishes, pizza and Coca-Cola, to their masters.

FRENCH CLUB

Eastmoor was host to the annual French banquet given February 29 at the Ohio Union and attended by eight hundred French students from this area. The PIECE DE RESISTANCE for this year's GRANDE FETE was BIFTOK CUIT AU FOUR. Steve Stellman of Eastmoor was MAITRE DES CEREMONIES for the program of skits and music. Eastmoor's skit titled QUELQUES CHOSE DE DIFFERENT included the following people: Ken Bachmann, Rita Engleman, Sue Israel, Dave Hillenbrand, Andrea Helman, Sue Steffy, Mary Ellen Strohbach, Andrea Gorenstein, Diana Davis, Terrie Rose, Geraldine Webster, Jane Ramseyer, and Mary Beth Morris. Mrs. Waltz and Mr. Tharp were faculty co-chairmen of the event.

"Parlez-vous francais?" Those students who speak French are eligible to join the French Club which is advised by Mr. Tharp. The most important event of the year is the annual French Banquet. Schools from all over the city participate and compete with each other through carefully prepared French skits. The members also see movies, read plays, and hear stories about France.

SPANISH CLUB

¿Habla usted espaňol? Any Spanish Club member can translate this question. Students are members of this club because they are interested in learning more about the customs, music, and industries of Spanish-speaking countries. In their meetings they have movies, talks, games, and records.

Eastmoor's Art Club has been organized for students who are interested in the fine arts. The members create many beautiful and original displays for the various showcases. Posters and many other forms of school publicity are designed by its members. Under the guidance of their adviser, Mr. Higbee, the club has taken educational field trips and tours of the art galleries.

LIBRARY CLUB

New books of various subjects are displayed in the Library. Welden Benedict is admiring a display on outer space.

Hats off to our Library Club! Eastmoor is very proud of the fact that it is the only school in the city to have a Book Fair which is held during National Book Week. English classes in all grades visit the library to view the latest books. This annual event is sponsored by the members of the Library Club whose main purpose is to promote an interest in books. Their annual social functions include a Christmas party and a spring picnic.

Members of the Camera Club gather knowledge in the field of photography through actual experiences in picture taking. Group discussions which are held at meetings add to their knowledge.

Mike Swinger, program chairman; Mr. Barr, adviser; Bob Agnew, vice-president; Nick Cooper, president; and Jerry Kelly are discussing the features of a projector.

"How did that picture turn out Jerry Kelley, Mike Swinger, and Bob Agnew?"

CHESS CLUB

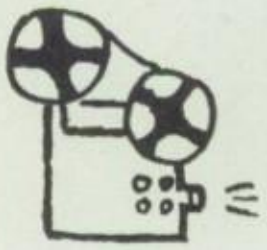
Here's a typical Chess Club meeting in 114. A tournament is going on between Joe Burkey, vice-president, and Steve Belhorn, president.



AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

The members of the Audio Visual Club are students who are interested in audio visual aids and careers in this field. These students gain a great deal of experience through their many services to the school.

These officers of the Audio Visual Club work with the projector while their adviser, Mr. Howard, looks on. They are Roger Seckel, general manager; Harold Starr, president; Rod Steward, vice-president; and Kurt Mundschenk, treasurer.

SCIENCE CLUBS

Pete Miller, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Murphy, adviser of the Junior Science Club; and Dave Hillenbrand, president; are pulling on a magnetron.

In order to learn more about science, each member in the Junior and Senior Science Club is given an experiment to perform during the club meeting. The members also view films on science and listen to speakers from the various scientific fields. Senior Science Club members submit projects to the annual science fair.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club studies areas of mathematics that are not taken up in regular courses and makes further studies of topics covered in regular classes.

RED CROSS CLUB

The Junior and Senior Red Cross Clubs work in cooperation with the American Red Cross for the ill and the handicapped. They answer requests for such things as nut cups, tray favors, and wall plaques to be used in hospitals and orphanages in this area. They are always ready to perform other services for the Red Cross and for Eastmoor High.

OUTDOOR CLUB

The chief aim of the members of the Outdoor Club is to promote healthy, and richer living. To be eligible for membership you have to be in the eighth grade. The group enjoys many field trips throughout the year.

STAMP CLUB

Officers Mike Gorsky, president, and John Harrison, vice-president, are admiring the newest addition to the stamp collection.

The members are encouraged to collect stamps and are taught to understand their background. Discussions concern proper methods of displaying stamps, judging of condition, and proper handling of the stamps.

MASQUERS CLUB

Masquers Club presents plays at Eastmoor and neighborhood elementary schools. Its members are eligible to try out for dramatic productions. They also help publicize plays and sell tickets.

Planning next week's meeting are Jennifer Douthit, vice-president; Mr. Morris, adviser; Sid Townsend, president; and Sandy Parks, secretary.

BEL CANTO CLUB

Bel Canto Club promotes interest in various styles of music. Guest speakers and performers instruct and entertain the club members. Occasional field trips to concerts and musicals add spice to the program.

VARSITY "E" CLUB

The Varsity "E" Club is a new organization, founded this year under the leadership of Coach Stuart. Members must have earned a varsity E letter. Their plans for the future are to promote the raising of funds for the sports department.

Some members of Mr. Keiser's stage crew are Phil Wilson, Mike Gibbons, Steve McDowell, and Dick Batteiger.

PRINTING ASSISTANTS

Printing assistants, who work under the direction of Mr. Barnes, are Bill Burton, Rick Smith, and substitute Dick Knapp.

STAGE CREW

The responsibility of counting and totaling all of Eastmoor's tax stamps rests on the shoulders of these ten students. Pictured here are Diane Borden, Karen Ross, Patty Kitzmiller, Mary Forster, Cathy Cale, Barb Mills, Susan Thorn, Susan Laird, Barb Gibson, and Edith Harris. Nancy Hildebrand is not pictured.

STAMP COUNTERS

Mr. Barnes directs the Sales Tax Stamp Collection Program. Income from the stamps is deposited in the school's general fund which is used to purchase materials, supplies, and equipment and to support projects not financed by the Columbus Board of Education. Money earned from sales tax stamps last year purchased a band instrument and a movie projector for classroom use.

STUDENTS STEP ALONG

If you're wandering around the halls, you might have a chance encounter with a hall monitor like Rosemary Taylor.

Near the end of the day library assistants are busier than ever. Shelving books are Judy Pilzer, Sandy Chambers, and Dave Hillenbrand.

Everyone has the same goal—his locker.

Everybody loves popcorn and it adds spice to decorating for a dance. Just ask Don Day, Linda Russ, Sid Townsend, Helen Schultz, and Judy Millar.

About two-thirds of the subjects offered in the Columbus Public High Schools are required. These required subjects are designed to further a person's general education and to develop good citizenship in him.

For the remainder of his courses each student can elect a program according to his individual need for furthering his career plans for the future.

To help the students decide what these plans will be, a series of career conferences are held throughout the year. Meetings with representatives of different fields—from accounting to zoology—are held. Some of the areas that are covered are natural science, engineering, education, re-

Claudette Corbett, a member of the Radio Speech class, rehearses for a program.

The classes represented on these pages are elective, and offer the student opportunities to further both talents and interests.

Music and art are included in a complete program of fine arts. Many vocal and instrumental ensembles, choirs, and music theory classes are available in the music department. The art classes furnish posters and decorations for school activities and interesting showcases. Radio speech classes present the "News and Notes" program each week and also serve as announcers on the WCBE (Board of Education) radio station. Students are able to participate

The program of the industrial arts includes a wide variety of courses. Drafting is a course which many of the prospective engineers take. The products of the metal and wood shops can be seen on display in their showcase. Many different articles are made by the boys taking these subjects. They range from metal plates to coffee tables and wood cabinets.

In clothing class Annette Whittaker shows Becky Smith how to press carefully. The girls also study units in foods, child care, home management, home nursing, interior decorating and consumer education.

Extensive opportunities await those students who wish to specialize in subject areas according to their interests and abilities.

OKLA

Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma" was presented by Eastmoor students on April 16th and 17th, 1959. More than 150 ambitious students prepared the popular musical comedy which was set in the Oklahoma Territory around the turn of the century. The show featured colorful western costumes, realistic scenery, and an old-time surrey.

Songs included "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "People Will Say We're in Love," and "I Can't Say No." Pam Smyser danced as Laurey in the ballet "Out of My Dreams."

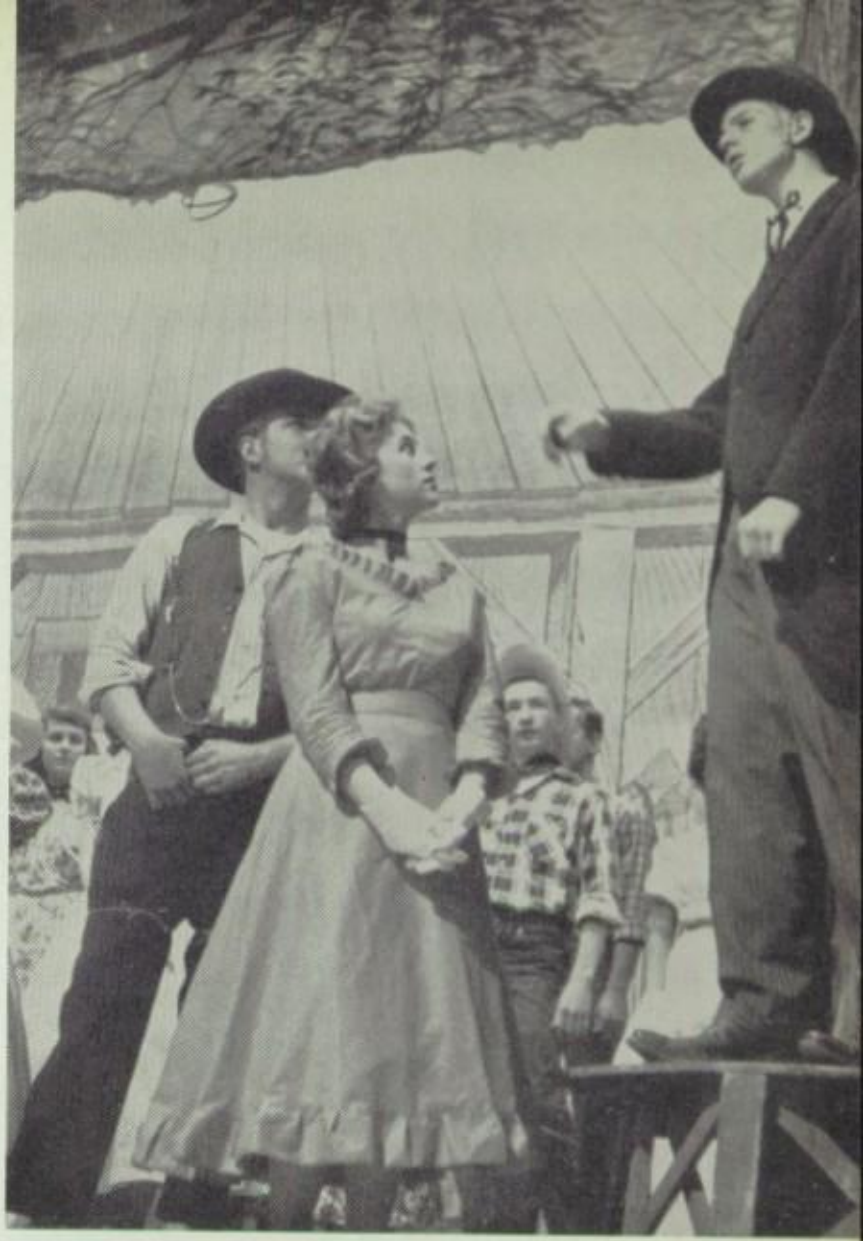
HOMA

The leads in the cast were: John Braulick as Curly, Sally Kall as Laurey, LaRita Gantz as Ado Annie, Jim Lawton as Will, Larry Nichols as Jud, and Pat Mayfield as Aunt Eller.

Mr. Morris and Mr. Keiser produced and directed the musical. Music for the show was provided by the Eastmoor Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Jerry Kaye.



Carnes (Dave Armstrong) is urging the farmers and the cowboys to be friends as Gertie (Sydney Scott), the Sheriff (Alan Lewis), and the rest of the cast watch.

Will scolds Ado Annie for not being true to him during his trip to Kansas City.

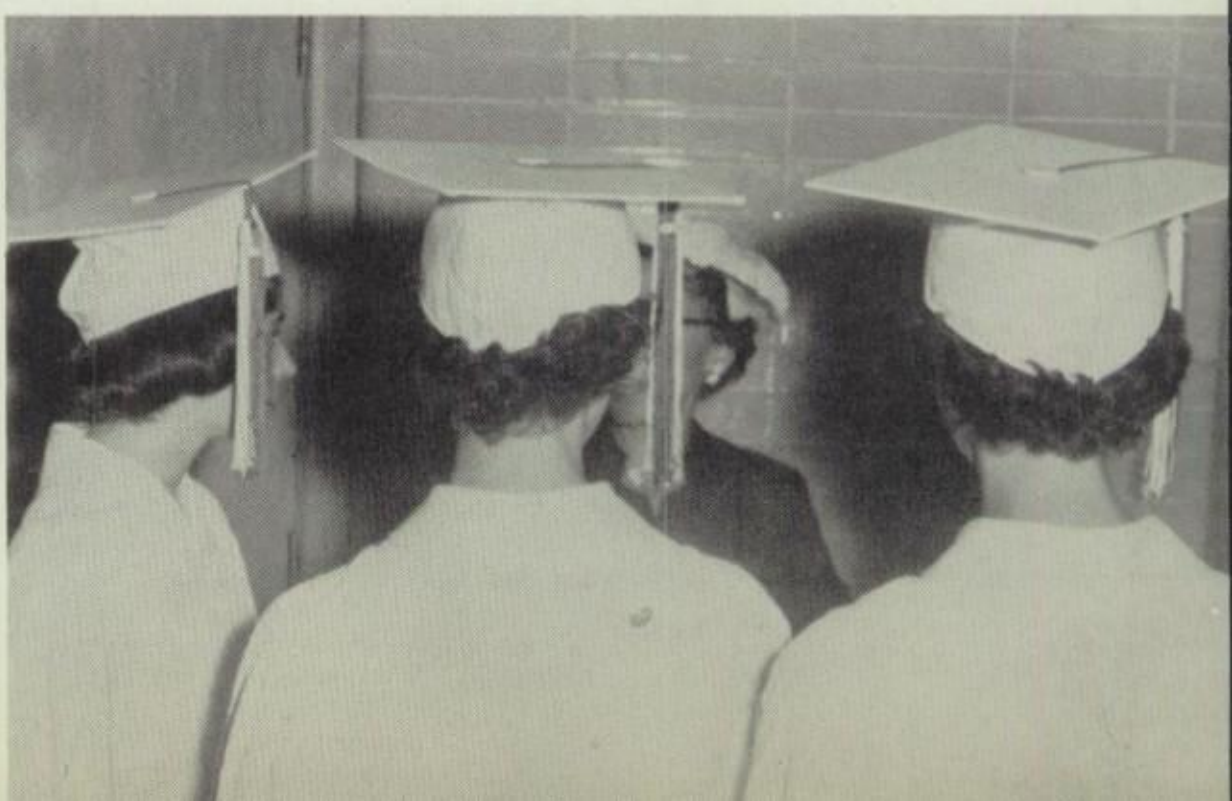
SENIOR HIGH

In an exultant moment one hundred seventy-three diplomas were presented by Daniel W. DeHayes to the Graduating Class of 1959. Inspiring class speeches were given by Linda Davis on the topic, "What Does the Future Hold?" and Duane Reynolds on "Are We to be the Last Adult Generation?" Mr. T. H. Mayor presided, and the Eastmoor Senior Choir and Concert Band also participated in the ceremony.

With happy smiles on their faces Linda Ringer and Amelia Neely proceed into the future.

Graduation is behind them and the future before them.



Three hundred twenty-five diplomas were presented to members of the junior high graduating class of 1959 by Mr. Stanley Gingery, Mr. T. H. Mayer, and Mr. Norval Goss.

GRADUATIONS

JUNIOR HIGH

To the music of the Junior Band, the 325 members of Eastmoor's 1959 Junior High graduating class began their procession down the aisles of the auditorium. In turn they received their diplomas from Mr. Stanley Gingery, an assistant superintendent of schools. The class speakers were Jean Braulick and Michael Palestrant. Jeanne talked on "You and Your Ideals" and Mike spoke on "Responsibilities."

Presiding over the impressive ceremony was Mr. T. H. Mayer. Eastmoor's ninth grade choir provided a musical interlude during it.

The big step causes a moment of speculation for Janet Gray.

HOMECOMING GAME

The Homecoming Game against Linden McKinley was highlighted during the half-time by the announcement of this year's Eastmoor Homecoming Queen. Bill Gillam, our student council president, announced the members of the Court. First to come on the field was Claudette Corbett with Jim Wilson. Second was Ellen Appelbaum and Walt Wilke. Rita Kastl and Larry Spangler followed next. A hush went over the crowd as the last member of the court was announced—Judy Dutton accompanied by Curt Haywood. Applause broke the silence as Angel Burnette was announced as Queen. She was presented with a football signed by the football squad.

DEDICATION

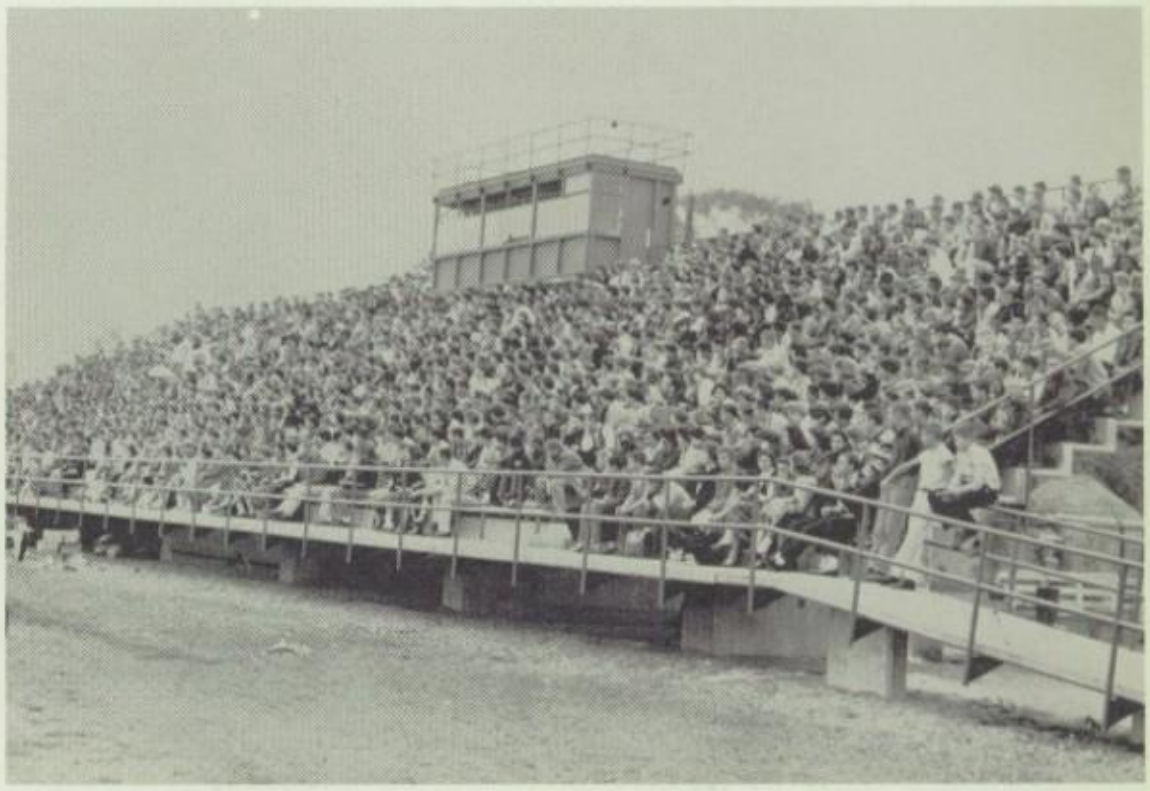
OUTDOOR PEP ASSEMBLY

The first pep rally held in the stadium established the spirit for the game that night with East.



"Yea! Eastmoor!" cheered a couple of surprise representatives from the '20's, (Mr. Goss and Mr. Mayer) as they bounced onto the field in their Tin-Lizzie.

ADD PEP AND SPIRIT

After our Championship Assembly, Cynthia Husted, Neva Lowe, Arlene Masch, Ellen Appelbaum, Angel Burnette, and Joy Henry salute our team.

Leading the Warriors' cheers for the 1959-1960 season, our energetic groups of cheerleaders have proved a large factor in the spirit of the Eastmoor High teams.

Captain of the varsity squad is Angel Burnette. Our reserves are headed by a different girl each week and Sarah Welch leads the Junior High team in cheers. Together these girls have come up with yells both original and well-loved.

BOOKFAIR

Each year during National Book Week Eastmoor has its Book Fair, the only one in the city. Every English class spends one period browsing among the beautiful new books.

Mrs. Pryer, Miss Holtzman, and Terry Rose are admiring the new novels.

This coy-looking reindeer was one of the many Christmasy figures, peeking in classroom doors. Kay Johnston, Mikki Franklin, and Barbara Moltenberry are three of the Y-Teen members responsible for them.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES

Eastmoor's Christmas spirit reached a peak this year with gala decorations and good will everywhere. Jolly figures, made by members of Y-Teens, adorned each classroom door and appeared at intervals around the school. In the main hall the traditional Christmas tree and showcase could be seen by all. Senior members of the choir also carried out their tradition of caroling in the halls. The Christmas assembly this year was the play, "Dust of the Road" with a series of songs by the choir. A more serious addition to the holiday activities was the service projects many of Eastmoor's clubs had for the underprivileged. The Mixed Ensemble also brought Christmas cheer to hospitals and orphanages. The true ideas and understanding of Christmas were brought out supremely well this year.

Candidates for King of Hearts were Tim Miller, John Braulick, Bob Agnew, Dick Doughty, and Bill Gillam.

VALENTINE DANCE

Valentine's Day was celebrated again this year by the annual Valentine's Dance sponsored by the Senior Y-Teens. This year it was under the title "Sweetheart Swirl." The cafeteria was decorated with hearts, cupids, and stars in various sizes. The crowning of Sandy Weemhoff and Tim Miller as Queen and King of Hearts by Angel Burnette and Dick Schultz, last years' royalty, highlighted the evening.

GRIDIRON SUMMARY

Eastmoor's Warriors launched their '59 campaign by downing West 14-0 and giving way to East 6-0 in the season's preview. Then they met their neighborhood rival, Whitehall, for the opening tilt of the season and were defeated 12-0. After this slow start the Warriors gained considerable speed and downed Bexley 22-20 in a fourth-quarter thriller. The following Friday Coach Bob Stuart's men defeated West, their first City League opponent, by a score of 26-0. Continuing their winning ways, the Warriors rolled over South 22-6 and tromped Central 28-0. Playing before a capacity Homecoming crowd, the scrappy Eastmoor eleven skinned the Linden Panthers 8-0 and set their sights on the City League Crown. Mighty East came next. An overflow crowd cheered the determined Warriors on to a thrill-packed 8-6 victory over the Tigers and a share of the championship. Unwilling to share the trophy, the Warriors showed true championship form by romping over Marion Franklin 36-0 the following Friday night. Champions met champions as Eastmoor traveled to Greenfield McClain to challenge the powerhouse of South Central Ohio. With the score tied 8-8 in the final minute of play, an alert Tiger defender intercepted a Warrior aerial and raced back upfield to make the final score Greenfield 14, Eastmoor 8. This concluded a great championship season for the Warriors. With many returning lettermen, they are eagerly looking forward to another fine season next year.

The Warriors began their season quite successfully with a 53-41 win over London. The next ten games were won by Eastmoor's opponents. This included the Warren, Ohio, tournament when the Warriors were downed by Youngstown East 65-55, and also by Cleveland John Adams, 81-60. After bowing to East 75-43, our fighting five began to chalk up an impressive record of victories. We started off by tromping Big Walnut 67-36. The next game was a 59-57 thriller over Aquinas, which was also Eastmoor's first City League win. The Warriors then travelled to St. Charles to overpower the Cardinals 52-46. Our second City League victory came when we swamped Marion Franklin 66-40. North slowed the Warriors pace when we lost in a 79-70 thriller. Eastmoor's fighting Warriors rebounded by walloping Utica 72-51. We polished our season to a high gloss by whipping South 77-64. In the Class AA District Tournament, the Warriors won over North 68-67. This was the most exciting game of the year, as the winner was not determined until ten minutes after the game had ended.

With this copy of the SHIELD come hard work, exhausted inspiration, and five-minute lunches on the part of your co-editors and the rest of the staff. More important, it brings our most sincere congratulations to the class of '60 and to all the following classes.

We hope that next year's editors will have a little easier work, a little longer lunches and just as much fun as we did.

We hope you like it.

Your co-editors,

Margit Bauer

To Dean,
A guy who I have had a lot of fun with although it seems like it was too long ago we have shared a lot of happy memories - Remember the basketball games, "Choo Choo" Saturdays at Dana, the football games, the "Choo Choo" after the games, the little league football games in my backyard, and so many more that would take me pages to write. It sure is wonderful seeing you again and showing us a nice time. Die enjoyed talking over "old times" with you. I wish you were coming home for the summer but I know you will be back in the fall. Die enjoyed talking with you but I wish we could have talked longer. I know you will get a chance to come to Rhode before the remaining 2 years in the "Stonewall" and I Jazz will visit Jazz and "Stonewall" and I Jazz will talk to you. But if you don't get back we will meet again maybe next year. Be good and stay out of trouble if that's possible - Stay as sweet as you are now - Die always remember you. Lots of love, Pat
